Use of the Stillwater grounds is conditioned on the field trial permit issued to WBC by the Washington Department of Fish and Wildlife (WDFW). A copy of this permit is available at the Secretary's table. It is important that we endeavor to "leave no trace" of our use by cleaning up the laydown and parking areas. If it rains and the grounds are wet, please stay parked in the main gravel parking areas to avoid creating ruts and other damage to the fields.

Group meals are not scheduled at this time.

*All participants, guests and entries are accepted on the strict condition that the Washington Brittany Club, its officers, officials, members and committee are released from liability for any and all loss, damage or injury sustained by people, dogs, horses, vehicles, or any other sort of liability in connection with or during the trial from the time the participants or guests arrive at the trial grounds.

GROUND

Limitations include but are not limited to the following:

- Overnight camping on the grounds or parking lot is not permitted.
- Vehicles are confined to the designated parking area.
- Limited parking on the grounds is permitted for Judges and to facilitate event general conditions.

- Limited participant parking on the grounds "may" become available (weather conditions permitting), see FT personnel. Use Extreme caution when vehicles cross the Centennial Trail.
- A WDFW vehicle permit, or a Discover Pass is required to park on grounds or parking lot. Available at <https://store.discoverpass.wa.gov/>
- Only permitted vehicles allowed to drive on any course.
- Smoking on the grounds or outside of your vehicle is prohibited.
- No open fires.
- No potable drinking water is available.
- Read and abide by all posted rules and regulation at the WDFW Stillwater dog training wildlife area before and after the field trial.
