

AFTCA Individual Membership Requirements In Breed Championships & Regular Trials
(December 17, 2015)

It was discussed by the trustees that breed championships that pay the $200.00 club dues can allow participants to compete without paying the individual membership fee.

If breed clubs host regular trials that pay $100.00 club dues participants must be an individual member to compete.

For the spring trials of 2016, no entries will be refused if the participant does not have an AFTCA individual membership in breed club hosted events. This will be reviewed by the AFTCA trustees at their summer meeting.
